b. General Updates – What is LMMP? Support the music teachers and see what they need, support scholarships, trips, accompanist, other requests. Raise money through concessions at volleyball and basketball – Signup genius to bring in more volunteers – Oct 4 5:30 & 6:45 games could bring people. Students can help (especially if they are good with math.) Scrip Program, Larger Musical Event for Music in our Schools Month (March)

c. Jefferson County Fair – not well volunteered for.

3. Program Update (Teachers)

Chris Shanafelt – elementary music is going great! regular schedule this year for concerts (3/4 Winter – December 6 6:00, K-2 Spring April 18 6:00)

Kayla Krizek – 5th and 6th grade chorus going great! – Dec. 1 First Concert

Brad Klotz – Beginners are learning first notes – 5th & 6th grade numbers are back to on par with pre-Covid, Dec. 1 First Concert

Linda Heimstreet – 7th – 12th Grade Choirs, this Sunday is the Tri-M Music Induction, Middle School Honors Choir will be at Lake Mills on November 14, Singing in Wisconsin (WCDA – 1 day November 12 – open to any student who wants to attend – cost involved.) HS Choir Concert is December 8 at 7:00.

Steven Walsh – our new HS Band & MS Band, Half time show for homecoming (October 14) – working on marching, Jazz Band rehearsing for a couple of weeks, HS Band Concert is December 20

Orchestra Concert is Thursday, November 17.

Back to performing and making music together – it is great to not stand 6 feet apart so they can hear each other and perform

Annie the Musical – nice turn out for auditions – First weekend in November – tickets will go on sale soon.

Middle School Schedule is better this year than last year at the 5th grade level using a 6-day rotating schedule. 8th grade is having a hard time resolving scheduling conflicts so that students can participate in multiple ensembles.
